

USER JOURNEYS

SARAH

It’s Sunday and Sarah is about to go on a run. She wants to log the run then see a summary of her movement progress for the week.

Goals & Expectations

- Log a 45-minute run
- Record emotions before/after run
- View weekly summary of movement

SAMUEL

Samuel has changed endocrinologists. He wants an appointment very soon, so he needs to share his previous records with the new doctor directly (rather than wait for the office to request and collect for him).

Goals & Expectations

- Upload miscellaneous PDF records
- Review records
- Export into one document and share via email
